

Media Disclaimer: International Federation on Ageing 16th Global Conference

By participating in the International Federation on Ageing (IFA) 16th Global Conference, you acknowledge and agree to the following media disclaimer:

Consent for Photography and Videography: By attending the conference, you grant permission to the organizers, sponsors, and media representatives to photograph and capture video footage of you during the event. This includes but is not limited to sessions, workshops, networking events, and public areas.

Usage of Media Content: The photographs and videos captured during the conference may be used by the IFA and its partners for promotional, marketing, and informational purposes. This may include, but is not limited to, websites, social media platforms, newsletters, press releases, brochures, and other related publications.

No Compensation: You understand and agree that you will not receive any form of compensation, payment, or royalty in connection with the use of the photographs and videos featuring you. Furthermore, you waive any right to inspect or approve the final products, including printed or electronic materials, wherein your image may appear.

Release of Liability: You release the IFA, its officers, representatives, and any affiliated entities from any claims, demands, or causes of action arising out of or in connection with the use of your image, including any claims for defamation, invasion of privacy, or infringement of personal or proprietary rights.

Retention and Ownership: The IFA and its partners shall retain ownership and copyright of all photographs and videos captured during the conference. The images may be stored and used in the present and future without further consultation or approval.

By attending the International Federation on Ageing 16th Global Conference, you acknowledge that you have read and understood this media disclaimer and agree to be bound by its terms. If you do not wish to be photographed or captured on video, please inform the conference organizers in advance or refrain from attending events where media coverage is expected.
